

Thrive Youth Permission Form

For the next several weeks, Thrive Youth will cover a series of lessons from Charis Bible College's biblical worldview book on 'Sexuality.' The changes in moral standards in recent years have stirred confusion, led to life-altering choices, and shattered families. This series will teach many lessons that will help the Youth to understand sexuality based on God's Word.

More information about this book and others from the biblical worldview series can be found on the Charis Bible College and Andrew Wommack Ministries websites.

Some important notes about the upcoming lesson series:

- For each lesson, boys and girls will be separated. The boys will gather in one room, and the girls in a separate room, never being taught together.
- The Biblical Worldview on Sexuality does not recommend being taught to anyone under the age of 13.
- If your child is under 13 or you prefer they not participate in this lesson series, alternative Wednesday evening classes will be offered.
- Dinner will still be provided
- Youth will still gather and worship as a group, then split up for the lesson plan.

Child's Name: _____ Age: _____

By signing below, I agree to and wish my child to be taught this lesson series from the Biblical Worldview Series on sexuality. I understand this lesson plan is ongoing and will be taught on several Wednesdays. I understand and am aware that my child is old enough to be taught these materials. I understand that the boys and girls will be taught these materials in separate classrooms.
